

CHILDREN'S BOOKS THAT INSPIRE & UPLIFT

By author Judy Ann Lowe

with full-color illustrations by Ayuna Collins & David Edward Martin

The Little White Light has a special charm about it when it blinks, as Penny discovers at night, in the morning and even during the day. This inspiring and uplifting relationship brings great comfort to Penny, as it will to readers of all ages.

Children and adults will enjoy this sweet story told in simple prose with delightful color illustrations. The Little White Light is sure to become a family treasure, to be enjoyed over and over again for years to come.

Paperback: 32 full-color pages with 12 watercolor illustrations

MSRP: $14.99

MJ'S NEW FRIEND is a story of acceptance, friendship and finding the courage to stand up for those who are "a little different."

When MJ sees a new boy at soccer practice, he notices there is something unusual about the boy, but instinctively likes and trusts him. As their friendship unfolds, MJ learns there is more to the boy than he realizes. It is up to MJ to "step up to the plate" and become a leader, stand up for his friend, and encourage the other children to look past their fear and differences to find the heart of friendship in diversity.

The inspiration for this story came from Judy's husband, Sam, who had an interest in UFOs and people from other planets.

Paperback: 28 full-color pages with 9 ink & marker illustrations

MSRP: $14.99

Ever since the Little White Light first started appearing to Penny, it showed up every night and day in the corner of her bedroom ceiling and blinked, reassuring her with its presence. But one night, it wasn't there.

The next day, Penny's best friend MJ stopped by. No longer wanting to keep the secret of the Little White Light from him, Penny told MJ all about the light and how very special it was to her. Suddenly, the children heard a frightening screeching and squawking coming from the side of the house. What could be making such a terrible noise?

Facing a scary situation without the guidance of adults, the children learn the depth of their own courage and compassion, and soon discover that even the most ordinary day can be magical.

Paperback: 44 pages with 30 watercolor, ink, crayon & digital illustrations

MSRP: $14.99

Contact: Judy Lowe, lowejudy@att.net • jspathways.com • facebook.com/JSPathways